Paid for by the Monroe County Democratic Committee

Why Register and Vote Democratic?

Democrats are bound together by deep principles that are embedded in our core set of values - from the Declaration of Independence, the Bill of Rights and the U.S. Constitution. We believe that in this great and prosperous country, certain truths are as self-evident as those put forth over two hundred years ago...

The New Colossus

by Emma Lazarus

Not like the brazen giant of Greek fame,
With conquering limbs astride from land to land;
Here at our sea-washed, sunset gates shall stand
A mighty woman with a torch, whose flame
Is the imprisoned lightning, and her name
Mother of Exiles. From her beacon-hand
Glow world-wide welcome; her mild eyes command
The air-bridged harbor that twin cities frame.
“Keep, ancient lands, your storied pomp!” cries she
With silent lips. “Give me your tired, your poor,
Your huddled masses yearning to breathe free,
The wretched refuse of your teeming shore.
Send these, the homeless, tempest-tost to me,
I lift my lamp beside the golden door!”

What Democrats Stand For

You may have heard people complaining about the Democratic Party and how its message has been lost in the “resist the far right” furor. The numerous Americans in the middle hear the incessant bluster of today’s Republicans. But many don’t know what alternative the Democrats can provide.

Yet it’s not hard to answer the question: “What do the Democrats stand for?” Over our country’s history, the political message of both parties has changed. As Republicans are so quick to point out, theirs was once the party Abraham Lincoln called his own. That seems ironic considering current Republican policies.

Since the Great Depression, however, the Democrats have been the champions of the working people of America. Franklin Roosevelt’s New Deal policies brought our economy out of the worst financial crisis in our history, the Great Depression.

Workers’ unions forced corporate entities to share their wealth with the people who created that wealth, bringing about the middle class. The Democratic party was there with them, supporting the right of every American to a living wage and safe working conditions. Laws creating the 40-hour work week and time-and-a-half for overtime (not to mention countless other advances) came directly from this relationship of government and workers.

The Republican Party uses the media to vilify those unions and drive a wedge into the middle class, convincing voters that the unions are the problem, rather than the solution. Lack of unions, in turn, removes workers’ power to bargain with bosses.

Programs like Social Security that help care for people at the end of their careers came from Democratic Party legislation. Yet Republicans insist on calling these programs “entitlements,”

THANK YOU

We want to extend our gratitude to the individuals, businesses, and organizations that made this year’s Guide possible. Our goal was to create a resource with essential civic information for our area and contribute to Monroe County as a united Democratic Party. We hope you find it useful.

What Democrats Stand For

even though every worker pays into the system for his or her entire working life. The program is in trouble only because of decisions made by politicians to use our money elsewhere.

Health care in the U.S. is so costly that many Americans die for want of insurance. The Obama Administration went further toward fixing that problem than any other, passing the Affordable Care Act. But the Republicans, rather than help improve the ACA so even more Americans have insurance, have relentlessly worked to repeal it or amend it so severely that it dies.

The Republican Party may have been the party of Lincoln, but the Democratic party has been, and continues to be, the party of civil rights. What good is emancipation without equality? There is not even one Republican-backed program to assure that minorities share in the American Dream, to say the least.

Education is a necessity in a democracy. People need to understand the issues to be responsible citizens who vote in their own best interest. Public education is under siege, however, and higher education is becoming so expensive that the burden of debt is crushing those who aspire to become our next generation of leaders.

Our air and water are getting dirtier at a faster pace than in decades, thanks to the Republicans' repeal of environmental protections Democrats fought to make law. This protection has been crippled so that corporations can increase their profits, which do not "trickle down" to the average American.

One look at years of wealth-share charts from economists shows that the concept of trickle-down economics simply doesn't work.

The Democratic Party's message to voters for the upcoming election should include these core issues:

- Taxing people according to what they take from the system.
- The power of collective bargaining for all American workers.
- Healthcare coverage in the form of Medicare for all.
- Protecting the rights of working people.
- Equality for people of color, and of every gender, sexual orientation and religion.
- Ensuring that every American gets a good education.
- Protecting the environment, in the U.S. and worldwide.

That's a short summary of what the Democrats stand for, and our message is the American people's message. Democrats should shout it at every newscast microphone, on every street corner, in every discussion in every home, club and gathering. We need to take off the kid gloves and loudly proclaim the Democratic platform.

It's the only way to counter the opposition's misinformation campaign. Many say shouting is taking the "low road" – but there's nothing low about fighting for truth, justice and the American Way.

Elected Officials in Washington

by Teresa Daly

Monroe County is represented by three Democrats in Washington, and Pennsylvania's governor and lieutenant governor in Harrisburg. Get to know them better here!

SUSAN WILD (D)

Representative: 7th District

ELECTED / TERMS IN OFFICE

In November 2018, Congresswoman Wild was elected as the first woman to represent Pennsylvania's 7th Congressional District in the U.S. House of Representatives. She was elected after the 7th district had been redrawn to include all of Lehigh and Northampton counties and part of Monroe County. She was re-elected in 2020.

BIOGRAPHY

Susan Ellis Wild was born at Wiesbaden Air Force Base, West Germany, while her father, who was in the Air Force, was stationed there. She volunteered on Jimmy Carter's 1976 presidential campaign, and shortly thereafter graduated from American University and earned her law degree at the George Washington University Law School. She became a partner at the law firm Gross McGinley in 1999. She has lived in France, California, and New Mexico, and has lived in the Lehigh Valley for more than 30 years. Her two adult children were born and raised in the Lehigh Valley. Rep. Wild built a successful legal practice and became the first woman to be appointed as Allentown City Solicitor.

LEGISLATION AND COMMITTEES

Rep. Wild has sponsored or cosponsored numerous bills, including H.R. 4428 — the Greater Mental Health Access Act; H.R. 4259 — the Schools Preventing Hunger in At-Risk Kids Act; and H.R. 1870 — the Family Health Care Affordability Act of 2019.

All her bills have been referred to committee.

Rep. Wild was appointed to the House Education and Labor Committee and the House Foreign Affairs Committee for the 116th Congress.

FUN FACT

In September 2019, Rep. Wild's dog, Zoey, aka Zoey the Congressdog, won the Cutest Pet on Capitol Hill Award at Pet Night on Capitol Hill, hosted by the Human Animal Bond Research Institute (HABRI), the Pet Food Institute (PFI), and the Pet Leadership Council (PLC).

Elected Officials in Washington

MATT CARTWRIGHT (D)

Representative: 8th District

ELECTED / TERMS IN OFFICE

Congressman Cartwright was elected to represent Pennsylvania's 17th District in 2012, and re-elected in 2014 and 2016. After redistricting, he ran and won as representative of the newly formed 8th district in 2018 and 2020. The 8th district includes all of Lackawanna, Pike, and Wayne counties, and portions of Luzerne and Monroe counties.

BIOGRAPHY

Matt Cartwright was born in Erie, PA. He graduated from Upper Canada College in Toronto in 1979 and went on to earn a BA in History from Hamilton College in Clinton, NY. He then attended the London School of Economics. He received his law degree in 1986 from the University of Pennsylvania Law School, where he was Editor of the University of Pennsylvania Law Review for two years. While at the London School of Economics, he met his future wife, Marion Munley. After they were married, both joined the Munley family's law firm in Scranton. The couple has two sons.

LEGISLATION AND COMMITTEES

Rep. Cartwright has sponsored or co-sponsored numerous bills during his time in the House of Representatives, including several bills to assist wounded veterans and to clean up the environment. Two bills that have now become law are the Veterans Care Financial Protection Act of 2017 and the MEGABYTE Act of 2016.

In 2019, the House Democratic Caucus elected Rep. Cartwright to the House Democratic leadership to serve as Co-chair of the Democratic Policy and Communications Committee for the 116th Congress. He also serves on:

- Committee on Appropriations — Vice-Chair, Subcommittee on Commerce, Justice, Science, and Related Agencies
- Committee on Natural Resources • numerous House caucuses.

FUN FACT

On February 27, 2019, the Center for Effective Lawmaking named Matt Cartwright among the top four most effective Democrats in the U.S. House of Representatives for the 115th Congress. In the entire U.S. House, he was one of about a dozen members of both parties "who have been in the 'Exceeds Expectations' category for their entire congressional careers," according to the CEL report.

Elected Officials in Washington

BOB CASEY (D) Senator

ELECTED/TERMS IN OFFICE

Senator Casey was first elected to the Senate in 2006 and is currently serving his third term. He is the senior U.S. Senator from Pennsylvania.

BIOGRAPHY

Robert Patrick Casey Jr. was born in Scranton. He played basketball for and graduated from Scranton Preparatory School. He then graduated from the College of the Holy Cross and received a law degree from the Columbus School of Law at the Catholic University of America. Between college and law school, Casey served as a member of the Jesuit Volunteer Corps and spent a year teaching fifth grade and coaching basketball at the Gesu School in Philadelphia. He practiced law in Scranton from 1991 until 1996, served as Pennsylvania Auditor General from 1997 to 2005, and as Pennsylvania Treasurer from 2005 to 2007. Sen. Casey and his wife Terese have four daughters.

LEGISLATION AND COMMITTEES

During his three terms in the Senate, Sen. Casey has sponsored or cosponsored more than 300 bills, and dozens have become law. These include the Campus Sexual Violence Elimination Act; the Emergency Medical Services for Children Reauthorization Act of 2014; the Continuum of Learning Act; and the Children of Fallen Heroes Scholarship Act, among many more.

Senator Casey Serves on Several Committees:

- Senate Committee on Finance — Ranking Member, Subcommittee on International Trade, Customs, and Global Competitiveness
- Senate Committee on Health, Education, Labor, and Pensions — Ranking Member, Subcommittee on Children and Families
- Senate Committee on Agriculture, Nutrition, and Forestry — Ranking Member, Subcommittee on Nutrition, Specialty Crops and Agriculture
- Special Committee on Aging — Ranking Member
- Weapons of Mass Destruction Terrorism Caucus — Co-chair
- National Security Working Group.

FUN FACT

Senator Casey's formidable father, Robert Patrick Casey Sr., served as the 42nd Governor of Pennsylvania from 1987 to 1995.

Our Governor & Lt. Governor

TOM WOLF (D) Governor

Tom Wolf grew up in a small town in York County. He attended Dartmouth College, interrupted his studies to join the Peace Corps before finishing his undergraduate degree, and earned graduate degrees from the University of London and MIT.

Gov. Wolf worked as a forklift operator and warehouse worker in the family business, the Wolf Organization, a building products distributor in York, and went on to buy the business. He grew the company, more than quintupling it in size, through smart leadership and treating employees fairly.

Since taking office in 2015, the governor has fought to change Harrisburg. His first actions as governor were signing a gift ban prohibiting administration employees from accepting gifts from lobbyists and reforming legal contracting to end pay-to play.

He donates his entire salary to charity and refuses a state pension. The governor inherited an education system that was cut by $1 billion. Rather than make Pennsylvania's children the first casualty of the budget process, he made them a top priority. He has restored the $1 billion cut to education by the previous administration, leading to improved graduation rates and more children in pre-K.

By expanding Medicaid, the governor provided affordable health care to 720,000 Pennsylvanians. He has given seniors the opportunity to age in their homes and made Pennsylvania a national leader in fighting the opioid epidemic.

JOHN FETTERMAN (D) Lieutenant Governor

John Fetterman grew up in York. He followed his father's footsteps to Albright College, where he played offensive tackle for the Lions. At 23, he joined Big Brothers / Big Sisters and threw himself into the program.

He went on to earn a master's in public policy from Harvard's Kennedy School of Government. He returned to Pennsylvania to start a GED program in the town of Braddock and focused on turning the town into a thriving and growing community. In 2005, he ran for mayor and won. He applied a hands-on approach from AmeriCorps and his service experience to take steps to rebuild his community, bringing creative urban policy solutions to Braddock.

Lt. Gov. Fetterman wanted to do more for his commonwealth too, and has emerged as one of Pennsylvania's leading progressive voices for working people, running on issues like inequality, racial justice, and ending the failed war on drugs. In 2018, he was elected as the 34th lieutenant governor of Pennsylvania.

Local Government: A Guide

Listed in Alphabetical Order

■ Auditors

are elected to four- to six-year terms. They are responsible for reviewing the revenues and expenses of the townships.

■ Boroughs

are self-governing. The four boroughs in Monroe County (Mount Pocono, Stroudsburg, East Stroudsburg and Delaware Water Gap) each has its own elected government consisting of a Council, a Mayor, and an appointed town manager or administrator. Borough councils in Monroe County each have 7 members with four-year overlapping terms.

■ Clerk of Courts

is elected to a four-year term; the office is responsible for preparing and maintaining court records for criminal cases, and carries out many of the same functions as the Prothonotary does for civil actions. In Monroe County one elected official acts as both the Prothonotary and Clerk of Courts.

■ Constables

Constables in PA are local elected officials and serve six-year terms in service to the PA Magisterial courts. They are peace officers and assist in serving the Common Pleas Court when requested by the Sheriff.

■ Controller

has a four-year term, manages fiscal affairs of the County to ensure that finances are administered, recorded and reported in a legal and timely manner. Duties include payroll, review and processing of all county bills, and overseeing grants from state and federal sources.

■ Coroner

is a four-year elected position. The Coroner responds to scenes of death, interviews witnesses, examines the scene and removes the body from the scene. The office investigates certain types of deaths, especially when sudden, violent, unexplained or suspicious, to determine the cause and manner of death.

■ County Government

is administered by a board of three Commissioners with four-year terms. The Commissioners act in legislative and executive capacities. Their role is to administer human service programs, conduct land use planning, maintain county property, and oversee the County Correctional Facility, the Housing Authority, Vector Control, zoning and conservation.

■ District Attorney

serves as chief law enforcement officer for the County. This four-year elected position is responsible for prosecuting crimes and providing investigations for local police.

■ Judge of Election

holds a four-year term, specifically elected for the purpose of working the elections. The Judge of Election has direct control of the polling site and is assisted by inspectors, clerks, machine operators and a Constable. Each precinct has its own Judge of Election who is in charge of the polling place on Election Day.

■ Magisterial District Courts

have jurisdiction over civil claims where the disputed amount is less than $12,000, landlord/tenant disputes, Summary Offenses, and minor criminal matters. All Misdemeanor and Felony criminal cases are initially filed in the Magisterial District Courts. There are 9 Magisterial District judges in Monroe County, each elected to a 10-year term.

Local Government: A Guide

■ Monroe County Court of Common Pleas of the 43rd Judicial District is a state trial court with jurisdiction in serious criminal and civil cases of more than $7,000. It hears appeals from lower (magistrate) courts and appeals of decisions of state and government agencies. The President Judge supervises magisterial justices and their administration. There are 6 judges, including the President Judge, elected to 10-year terms.

■ Prothonotary

is elected to a four-year term, maintains court records including liens, judgments and divorce actions as well as civil and equity files. This office collects filing fees, issues receipts, certifies court documents, and issues passports.

■ Public Defender

(Chief Public Defender) is appointed by the County Commissioners; the office represents individuals who are charged with state crimes and cannot afford an attorney. Services are paid for by the taxpayers of Monroe County, and eligibility for representation is based upon the gross income level of the applicant, applying the Federal Poverty Guidelines.

■ Recorder of Deeds is a four-year elected position; the office acts as a collection agent for realty transfer tax for the State, municipalities and school districts. It funds the archiving and historical preservation of county land records.

■ Register of Wills is a four-year elected position which provides various services such as the probate of decedent estates, collection of inheritance taxes and maintenance of records pertaining to estates. In Monroe County one elected official acts as both the Recorder of Deeds and Register of Wills.

■ School Districts

are four in number in Monroe County – Pleasant Valley, Pocono Mountain, East Stroudsburg, and Stroudsburg. Each district is administered by a School Board consisting of nine members elected to 4-year terms, with staggered terms every two years.

■ Sheriff

is a four-year elected position, provides law enforcement and security to County courts. The Sheriff also executes civil complaints, summons, evictions, protection from abuse orders, and criminal warrants.

■ Tax Collectors

serve a four-year term and, through municipal authority, collect all real estate taxes (County, municipal and school) for all properties within the boroughs and townships.

■ Townships

are usually the first stop for residents who seek information or action on their issues. First-class townships have five commissioners, three elected for terms of four years each, and two for terms of two years each. Second-class townships may have three or five supervisors and they are elected to six-year terms.

■ Township Supervisors

are responsible for health and safety of residents. Duties include zoning, planning and land use, land acquisition, police and fire protection, roads and bridges, snow removal, parks and recreation, storm water management, and libraries.

■ Treasurer

is elected to a four-year term and is responsible for receiving, receipting and disbursing County monies. This office also serves as State agent for providing dog, hunting and fishing licenses.

Register & Vote in Monroe County - A Guide

1. REGISTER TO VOTE:

a. If you have a PA driver's license, or PennDOT ID card, register online at: www.pavoterservices.pa.gov/Pages/VoterRegistrationApplication.aspx

b. If you do not have a PA driver's license or ID card, print the application, or obtain a paper application from the Voter Registration Office; fill out and mail to Monroe County Voter Registration Office, One Quaker Alley, Room 105, Stroudsburg, PA 18360.

c. In any case, especially if you register when you renew or obtain your driver's license, make sure you receive a voter registration card in the mail within a few weeks. If not, verify that you are registered here: www.pavoterservices.pa.gov/Pages/VoterRegistrationStatus.aspx

If you registered online, use your application number to track your status here: www.pavoterservices.pa.gov/Pages/VoterApplicationStatus.aspx

If you change your name, your address, or your Party registration, fill out a new form and check the applicable box.

The deadline to register to vote is 15 days before the election.

Deadline for the May 17 primary election is Monday May 2, 2022.

Deadline for the November 8 election is Monday October 24, 2022.

2. VOTE:

a. In person on Election Day at the precinct where you are registered. Fill out and scan a paper ballot. You are only required to show ID if you are voting for the first time.

If you try to vote at a precinct other than the one where you are registered, you have the right to vote by provisional ballot. Be aware: although your vote will count for national, statewide, and county-wide offices, it may not count for Congress, the state legislature, or municipal/school board positions because the candidates who appear on the provisional ballot may not be the same candidates who are on the ballot in your precinct. Contact the Voter Reg. Office to find out if your provisional ballot was counted.

b. By mail before Election Day or by dropbox before and on Election Day. Apply for a mail-in ballot online here: www.vote.pa.gov/Register-toVote/Documents/PADOS_maillnapplication.pdf or print and mail a paper application to the Voter Reg. Office (see address above).

The applications for Mail-in Ballot and Absentee Ballot are different. It is preferable to use the Application for Mail-in Ballot. You do not need to be absent from your precinct or have a medical reason to vote by Mail-in Ballot. Your application must be received by the Voter Registration Office by 5 pm on May 10 for the primary election and November 1 for the general election. DO NOT WAIT until the deadline to apply; the turnaround time for you to receive the ballot and return it by Election Day is short. You can apply online to receive a paper mail-in ballot from the Voter Reg. Office; you cannot vote online.

TO VOTE:

- Mail your ballot early enough so that it will be received by the Voter Registration Office by 8 pm on election night, or,
- Place it in a dropbox during the open hours at your local library, or at the Voter Reg. Office in the Administrative Building, by 8 pm on election night. The libraries are not open on Sundays, and the Voter Registration Office is open only from 8:30 am to 4:30 pm on weekdays, or,
- Go to the Voter Registration Office in person before the deadline to apply for a Mail-in Ballot; ask for your ballot and be prepared to wait; fill it out at the Office and hand it in.

NOTE THE FOLLOWING: You must put the ballot in the smaller secrecy envelope before placing it in the outside envelope, or your vote will not be counted. Track your mail-in ballot here: www.pavoterservices.pa.gov/Pages/BallotTracking.aspx

Once you have voted by mail, you cannot change your vote. You cannot vote in person on Election Day. If you try, your vote won't count.

On Election Day, if you have received a mail-in ballot but have not voted, you can bring the ballot and pre-addressed outer return envelope to your precinct, turn them in, receive a fresh ballot and vote there. If you have received a mail-in ballot, have not voted but don't bring your ballot with you, you can vote in person by provisional ballot. You cannot bring your completed ballot to a precinct on Election Day and use it to vote there. You will be directed either to put it in a dropbox or hand it in and vote on a fresh ballot.

If you check the section of the Mail-in Ballot Application titled "Annual mail-in request" (Section 7), you will receive the ballot for elections held that year, AND you'll receive an Application for the following year. You will not automatically receive a ballot each year; you will receive the application for a ballot and must fill it out and return it each year that you want to vote by mail.

Pennsylvania does not have early voting—that is, you cannot go to a poll before Election Day and vote.

Find more election information on the Monroe County website: www.monroecountypa.gov/Dept/Voter/Pages/default.aspx or contact the Voter Registration Office at 570-517-3165.

If you want to continue being able to vote by mail, and to have dropboxes, Vote for Democratic County Commissioners, Governor and Legislators!

MCDC OFFICERS

...if by a "Liberal," they mean someone who looks ahead and not behind, someone who welcomes new ideas without rigid reactions, someone who cares about the welfare of the people - their health, their housing, their schools, their jobs, their civil rights, and their civil liberties - someone who believes that we can break through the stalemate and suspicions that grip us in our policies abroad, if that is what they mean by a "Liberal," then I'm proud to say that I'm a "Liberal." ~ John F. In previous editions of the MCDC Resource Guide, Democrats have written about the power of the vote. During the past year, though, the country has seemingly split apart on that issue and others, with one side trying to take away many of Americans' time-honored rights.

Voting rights, a woman's right to choose, and health mandates are all being challenged. State legislators are trying to pass laws to make it difficult for citizens to vote. Government meetings are being taken over by those who choose to shout down their elected representatives. And gerrymandering may once again become a reality for Pennsylvanians.

Voting is still the strongest and best way to resolve these problems and others — but now we encourage everyone to go a step further by getting involved. Join a political group, or, if you want to be nonpartisan, join the League of Women Voters of Monroe County (men are members, too). Write a letter to the Pocono Record about an issue that concerns you. Go to a School Board meeting to keep up with everything that is happening in our schools. If you're concerned about how elections are carried out, attend a Board of Elections meeting. Pick an issue that interests you, and then attend the meeting of the county committee that deals with that issue.

Go Out, Get Involved, and then Vote!

(Meeting places, dates and times can be found in this Resource Guide!) You may be surprised at how much you'll learn by attending a session of a governing group. Finally, take an active part on Election Day as a partisan poll watcher, as a nonpartisan poll worker or as a Judge of Election. Municipalities always need concerned citizens to help oversee the many aspects of Election Day.

Don't just lament the current precarious state of democracy in our country. Go out, get involved, and then vote. This year will be an especially important election year, with Governor of Pennsylvania and a seat in the U.S. Senate on the ballot.

Mark your calendar now — and don't forget to exercise your precious right to vote!

Matthew A. Cartwright
